BLUES: Rockin' Blues, BLUES: Funky Blues

Details: I often want to scream at the world that I live in, I suppose that everyone does, these 10 songs lightly touch on some of the primal screams that I have harbored for some time. Many of my songs deal w/ the Politics of War and Warriors, "Lion of Sudan" "Cryin Shame" "The Force" "Think", I was born in South Central Los Angeles before it was called South Central, just outside of Watts. I chose to turn my anger into a positive force, and music was the only tool that I knew how to use. I watched my childhood neighborhood burn around me in an American disgrace and an insanity that was borne of a time when people were Hanged and slaughtered as a result of thier skin tone. We still have much to learn as a Nation, it is my belief that we may learn these lessons thru our Music. I would like to thank the guys for helping to make this project possible, The Accelerators: Co-writer and Guitarist Mike Higgins for his vision and flaming guitar style, Bassist John DaRosa for his Funk and humor, Bassist Charlie Ball for his dedication and friendship, Keyboardist Rich Cesarini for his Keys and his laughter, Percussionist John DeAndrade for his style and commitment, Percussionist Deso Bryant for his ability to step in and Funk us out, and to all our Fans, Onward and up to the next endeavor.
