electronic pop songs about cocaine, porn stars and proselytizing. 10 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Down Tempo, POP: with Electronic Production Details: From Seoul to San Fran, Cousin Isaac circles the globe like some kind of coked out pilot, transporting passengers via sonic boom, producing airwave pop out of bleeps and bloops, over sampled loops. Lyrics like "And if you want some of my glam you better come with a Trans Am" say it all. Cousin Isaac is obviously on some kind of trip- but it sounds like he'll take you with him if you pay him money. For his live show, Cousin Isaac departs from typical instrumentation. Instead he beat boxes into a looping phrase sampler. adding sounds from toys, walkie talkies, even the audience. He usually flies solo, but has been known to bring on guest dj's, vj's and go go dancers. prepare for departure.
