Muldrew's music is best described by Oliver Sweeney, critic in Ireland's HOT PRESS Magazine as "David Muldrew, whose great music is a template for all of us", his CD has also been described as "soulful, exciting, thoughtful and emotional all in one". As the writer of this CD I will give you a bit of insight into myself. I have peddled my craft for 20 years and have played at major festivals and toured Australia,Singapore,Dubai,Italy,Holland,Germany,Mid West,Florida and New York in the States, both solo and as a member of various groups. My music has been compared to Vince Gill, James Taylor and is what I would call contemporary folk with a hint of country and a mix of Irish Traditional. My works have been featured on many compilation albums and recorded by numerous artistes, most recently by Irish artists Aoife Ferry and Irish tenor Emmanuel Lawlor along with the Cross Border Orchestra. Hope you Enjoy!!!
