This Latina is the hottest female rapper on da west coast and has more to offer than any MC in the game. Rapping is not the only thing Diamonique does, she sings, writes and co-produces as well. Some of her influences like Lauryn Hill, Teena Marie, and 2PAC reflect in her music. She combines her raw street raps with soulful R&B vocals giving her a wide appeal. She has already featured on numerous songs with artists like Kurupt, Hi-C, Domino, Dr. Stank, ODM and Lunch. She has also worked with producers like DJ Quik, Jon B., Babyface and Bobby Ross Avila. Her debut album entitled, Diamond in da Ruff, is versatile and well rounded including songs about her personal life experiences, as well as club bangers, with Nasty Nique Straight ripping it up. As an independent artist, her first single release "Get it On" has a definite party feel that getting clubs hyped across the country, and is already getting airplay form LA's KIIS, FM102.7, Power 106 (Felli Fel), (Poco's para Loco's) and (Big Boy), KIIS Albuquerque, and I.E.'s 99.1 KGGI (ODM) and strong support from clubs including "the Beach" in Las Vegas. Diamonique has been putting it down for years, and finally everything is starting to come together. Being affiliated with crews like Homeless Nation, Sugar III, Outskertz, and the production from "Fingazz" of Streetlight Productions, puts the icing on this cake.
