She has emerged onto the music scene with a style and sound that is all her own. She has successfully integrated Soul, Jazz, R&B, and Gospel into rich tenor/alto tones and inspirational lyrics. "Her music is so smooth and soulful, it makes you want to close your eyes and enjoy the ride!" Shaun Alexander, Seattle Seahawks For Fahren writing and singing became an effective way of communicating her feelings as a young girl. Raised in the Pacific Northwest, Fahren spent her youth listening to her moms' record collections of Chaka Khan Rufus, Earth Wind and Fire, P-Funk and Evelyn Champagne King. She began singing at church and in school, participating in conferences, musicals, contests and swing choirs. During her college years, she was featured in several music videos, including "Color Me Badd" featuring one of her favorite musicians, Bootsy Collins. It was not until 2001, that Fahren decided to take a step to pursue her passion to sing and write. Her most recent CD project, Fahren- My Story was released in 2007, and was produced by Tri-Quad Productions: young and talented producers Michael Cole, Jr. and Chris Fuller, along with some native up and coming producers, Greg Mallory and Will Roberts. Fahren has received two honors at the 2007 Northwest Music Awards hosted by ITM (In the Music), as the Best Female R&B Album and Best Crossover album. She was just recently recognized as Indie ring tone "Artist Pick of the Day". She performs regularly around the region with her band "Inspirational Soul", a group of gifted and awesome musicians, that she is honored to call friends. Fahren is also a petite model for Seattle Models Guild, based in Seattle. She has done commercials, print ads and fashion shows throughout the region. For Fahren, nothing defines her more completely than the sound she grew up on: good old Soul Music. Fahren truly believes that soul music is not just a genre, it's an emotion. Everything that you experience in life comes from your Soul and when you feel what you sing, you can communicate and touch the lives of people with your music. She is currently up for nomination for the Northwest Music Awards, for Best Female Vocalist, and has been very successful in touching lives with her music. Her new Soul EP is set to release in summer 2008 so stay tuned! Fahren is truly a unique and one-of a kind musician; you will love her music and the positive presence she brings.
