Straight Crack.... Hardest Out Period No Matter The Area Or Genre. 24 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Hip Hop, HIP HOP/RAP: Hardcore Rap Details: IceMan: Quinton E. Otis, otherwise known as IceMan was born in Ca$hville, TN. to Terrance Otis and Kim Dillard. The tragic death of his father when he was just ten years old, forced his mom Kim to move Quinton to low income housing in the inner city. Kim worked hard to provide the best opportunities for her family and education for her son, however due to a devastating illness, Quinton found most of his time being spent with his grandmother. He recalls, "I remember listening to gospel music on the way to Sunday school every Sunday, she wanted me to be a preacher", he laughs. Due to his grandmother's devote religion practices, Otis was forced to sneak and listen to his rap idols which included the likes of the Notorious B.I.G. and Jay-Z. Otis attended Antioch High School, where he met best friend Terrance C. Lake. It was with the inspiration and help of Lake that his entrepreneurial flair was first exhibited through a successful math project, that he added his lyrical talents to and later sold for profit to his classmates. This dynamic duo would come to form The Desert Eagles. Sadly before their debut album could be released Lake took his own life by way of suicide. The loss of his best friend coupled with the death of his grandmother, sent Otis into a downward spiral that he would sit in for many years vowing "never to rap again". It wasn't until the birth of his son, Otis would find a new guiding source and inspiration. With his son as new motivation, he found new focus and set out to give the rap game something it had been yearning for, a true hip hop artist, and from Nashville, TN non the less. With his right hand men, Nazdaq, Raw, and manager J. Rich (Two 3), Otis formed U. N. T. ., where he has produced several mixtapes, and a debut album called "IceMan: The Diary". While Otis works to secure a record deal, he continues to discover, underground artist, such as Eric Staten, known

as Raw, newest member Mystery from Philly. IceMan along with Raw will release the mixtape Grand Theft Audio III: Don't Become A Statistic Summer 2006. Raw: Eric "Raw" Staten is what many would call the backbone of U.N.T., and has quickly become one of the hardest rhymers in the south. Raw also met IceMan through a mutual friend, but this time it was by way of Los G. Raw was born and raised on the northside of Cashville living the majority of his years on 11th ave. The number of album appearances on U.N.T. projects is only second to IceMan himself. Due to the responds of tracks done together Raw Ice decided to record an album together under the moniker "The Commission". In addition to the duo album Raw is currently working on his debut Word On The Street Vol. 1. Nazdaq: Nazdaq is the originator, PERIOD. Jonathan is the Founder of U.N.T. Entertainment when the company was initially created in 1999 with life long friend and God brother IceMan. Nazdaq is the 1st to EVER to produce original tracks for the label, and also was the 1st to engineer original recordings as well. Many producers have been students of this producer's school of beats. (SOME WHO WE CHOOSE NOT TO NAME BUT YA'LL NIGGAS KNOW NAZ D TAUGHT YOU EVERYTHING YOU KNOW AND ICEMAN MADE YOU.) In addition to being the founder Naz is one of the C.E.O.'s of the label, and also holds the title of Executive Productions Manger as well. Nazdaq was nominated for S.E.A. producer of the year in 2005 for his work on The Diary. He was also a key producer on the highly successful Real Estate album, and will also serve as co-producer for The Secret Society and executive producer on The Diary (Chapter II). Nazdaq also plans to release a solo album entitled The Stock Report 3rd quarter 2006
