Hard Rockin' Country/Blues- Well written, original songs. Burnin' Hot. Yahoo. 10 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Outlaw Country, BLUES: Rockin' Blues Details: Jack Becker -1954, the concept for Jack's music un-officially began when bands led by Ike Turner, Elvis, and B.B. King played house rockin rhythm and blues. There was a raw edge to the music...and it made the audience feel real good. Jack has shared the stage with some of Americas hottest players: Coco Montoya, Preston Smith, Marcie Levy (Eric Clapton), Larry Taylor (Canned Heat), Janiva Magness, and Henry Cooper (Screamin Jay Hawkins) to name a few. With over 1,000 gigs under his belt, Jack knows how to make an audience feel right at home. This Cd features Janiva Magness on a burning hot version of the Beat Goes ON. The Bono family loved it and gave their blessings on it. Also "Down at the New Orleans" is a tribute to the Seattle scene circa 1992. Also enjoy hard rockin tracks like- Truck Drivin' Man, AnyDay Now and Somethin'Bout Somethin. Vocals/ lead guitars- Jack Becker Bass- Rick Reed (Steve Miller band) Drums- Dave Kida Rythym guitars- George Friend Piano/keyboards- John Herron (Fleetwood Mac) Red Young- Organ (world famous) Harp- Brad Gould (the Stomp) 1969 Spending too much time in south central L.A. and listening to way too much James Brown, Jack Becker acquired a taste for soul music and soul food. Having had the luck of seeing acts like Albert King, John Lee Hooker and Muddy Waters at the local clubs, and combining that with a love for Merle Haggard, Jerry Lee Lewis and Elvis, the sound of the Jack Becker was born. With a lineup of top musicians this band plays every song straight from the heart. A hell-raising time is guaranteed with Jack Becker and his band. thx People who are interested in Lynyrd Skynyrd The Allman Brothers Band Hank Williams, Jr. should consider this download.
