Alternative/ Country with a dash of jazz blues 10 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Traditional Country, ROCK: Roots Rock Details: In June 2004 Karin released her first album 'Full House'. Yes, she's a late bloomer, you might say, but better late than never... The album got good reviews, and received lots of radio play on Norwegian National Radio, NRK. The track Deep Down, was on the NRK's chart 'Norsktoppen' for 15 weeks, including 4 weeks as number one. The CD was recorded with contribution from some of Norway's finest musicians Geir Sundstl, a wizzard on strings, both played on and produced the album. Half the songs were written by Karin and her long time friend and companion, Jan Dahlen. Jan was the first country singer to bring country music to Oslo, the capitol of Norway, in the 80's. Even Rock'n Roll and New Wave fans loved his music. Karin and Jan Dahlen recorded some songs back in the late 80's. One song, however, was featured on the 'legendary' Blitz Hits, a double compilation album with bands from the Punk Rock scene of Oslo, way back then. Even though she made quite a few demos, collaborating with some of Norway's best rock musicians at the time, there were too many obstacles in the way to land a deal. Anyway those were great times, and she remembers with joy, the old rock bands she used to play in, playing covers, ranging from Rose Tattoo to Aerosmith, in between their own material. She was also 'banging' the drums for a while, but got fired for hittin' 'em too hard... She has calmed down a lot since then, she claims. Karin's got two great passions; music and racehorses. This proves she loves 'speed and sound'. She loves to ride around the track, working them horses and she just loves to sing. In 2004 the album titled 'Full House' saw the break dawn, and the reviews were great. This is an honest album where she reveals both guts and vulnerability. Never doubt her, this comes straight from her heart. She is a great live artist and she is not pulling back the reins! To be continued....
