Jazz influences combined with a willing mix of the esoteric, metaphysical, folk and soft rock make Crow an eclectic companion. 13 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Soft Rock, POP: Folkly Pop Details: Crow" is a gentle, soothing departure into dreamland and the eclectic soundscapes defy the typical pop album sound. "Crow is a vivid and compelling creation. It is refreshing when music creates thought. Crow does just that, it makes you think, feel and visualize. This CD leaves you satisfied and wondering what next?" stonewallsociety.com "Crow is an intriguing selection of 13 songs containing sounds as diverse as alternative rock, folk, blues, synthesizer new age and world music...those who like minimal and eclectic music with a wide range and metaphysical focus will enjoy this album very much." Amanda Fisher rambles.net Her genrebending cd's were released independently and her first 3 cd's have been A James Bowers Production. Norine Braun's repertoire ranges from ethereal, reflective moods to sizzling bluesy rock that test the limit of popular music. She is inspired by the struggle to find meaning in the human experience. Her lyrics, although provocative, do not lose touch with her whimsical nature. The song Dancing Sea from her debut Modern Anguish cd is featured on the tv series Wings Over Canada as were the songs Miles To Go and Goodbye Caramel from Miles To Go cd. Norine's song Watching Shadows from Modern Anguish is used in the David Kopp film Internicine. Norine Braun is played on CBC, and numerous college and university radio stations throughout Canada and the US. Norine's first music video is online at norinebraunand also airs on various cable shows in Canada and US and on Pridevision tv.
