In addition, she was also the Indiana State Champion Governor's Cup winner, three-time winner of the Indiana State Fair, and was runner-up at the prestigious Walnut Valley Festival in Winfield, Kansas, two times. Most recently, Olivia was a top-ten finalist in the Grand Masters Fiddle Championship held in conjunction with IBMA's World of Bluegrass for the second consecutive year. A classically trained musician, Olivia fell in love with bluegrass music at the age of 14 and released her first solo album in 2005. Jeff Guernsey is at home on any instrument but adds his impeccable guitar playing and vocals to this mix. After competing and winning his way through fiddle championships throughout the United States, he went on the road playing fiddle for Steve Wariner and Vince Gill for many years. Jeff is on Vince Gill's album High Lonesome Sound, Michael Cleveland's award-winning Let 'er Go Boys! and Sawing on the C String among many others. Olivia's greatest musical influence and the producer of her 2005 CD, Jeff is well-respected among all musicians. Multi-instrumentalists Klint Brown and Kolin Brown have been playing bluegrass music for most of their lives, and it shows. Having played with many bluegrass bands in and around Indiana, including Troubled Waters, they are well-respected musicians. Klints tasteful fills and driving rolls on the banjo, and Kolins great rhythm on the bass are on this CD. Their versatility make them a great addition to any band. Special guest, Michael Cleveland, is a six-time winner of the International Bluegrass Music Associations Fiddle Player of the Year award. Mike has also won Instrumental Album of the Year awards and Instrumental Band of the Year awards. On this recording, Mike lends his mandolin talents, which are not in short supply.
