Details: Quinten Hope is one of the most expressive artists on the scene today. From virtuoso guitar player to platinum level composer and producer he has all the credentials a professional musician should have. The latest masterpiece, "Start Of A New Day", is a powerful example of his talents as he joins forces with Will Lee and Andy Timmons. Quinten is a native Texan born and raised in Dallas. His passion for music led him to the University of North Texas where he studied Composition, Music Theory, Jazz and Classical guitar. He played and composed numerous pieces for the prestigious North Texas Lab Bands, several of which are still performed today. He has experience in every style you can think of. In 1997 he stepped onto the country music scene and was nominated "Best New Country Guitar Player" by the Dallas Country Music Awards. Quinten then turned back to his roots in the rock and blues circuit delighting crowds with his amazing solos and astonishing tone. Between performing, writing, session work and producing, Quinten Hope's name is becoming more prominent on the "Hot List" of players and himself a highly sought after talent.
