An unstoppable Soul vibration of slammin' bass, soulful vocals, conscious lyrics, and futuristic production. 13 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Funk, URBAN/R&B: Contemporary urban Details: Recording artist-producer Sean Conlon is on a mission to musicalize the perceptual paradigms of Earth. With a radical approach to electric bass guitar, lyrical conscience, and electronic groove creation, his music is a quantum innovation. His musical vision is as expansive as it is unique. He synergizes funk, soul, jazz, dub, rock, and ethnic flavas into a supernova of future sound. With soulful vocals, subatomic bass, and soaring leads, his music is a direct assault on human limitations. He is an unusual combination of compositional, lyrical, and improvisational talent who is constantly evolving. Sean's music and message are a wake up call to the untapped potential of humanity. Live Love is the dynamic and diverse self produced debut of this rapidly emerging Artist/Producer. It is a unique integration of uncompromised vision and creative collaboration recorded with Some of Seattle's most innovative players. Guests include trumpeter CD Littlefield of Karl Denson's Tiny Universe, drummer Kevin Sawka of Siamese, saxophonist Kimo Muraki from Nu Sol Tribe, drummer Darren Reynolds of the Humidifyers, and keyboardist Eric Verlinde. With lush instrumentation, creative production, and a timeless message, Live Love is a vast new world of sonic possibilities.
