The Bulgarians turned out not only superb dancer but also an excellent musician." R.M. Campbell, Seattle Post-Intelligencer "Milov no longer confines his communication to the stage... Heartfelt is a CD where Milov transfers his unwavering passions and trademark energy to the keyboard." Jane Vranish, Pittsburgh Post-Gazette "LOCAL MULTITALENT STANKO MILOV It is no surprise to hear that the very musical dancer Stanko Milov (a principal dancer at Pacific Northwest Ballet...)has other musical gifts, including substantial talent as a composer and a pianist. In those latter two genres, Bulgarian-born Milov has produced this very listenable CD of his own keyboard works... The music has an improvisatory feel; it's tonal, lyrical, easy to hear and evocative of the emotion suggested by the title." Melinda Bargreen, The Seattle Times "Heartfelt is truly a remarkable accomplishment. Stanko's performance of his compositions reflects great panache and exuberance which he possesses in abundance." Dianne Chilgren, Concert Piano Soloist "Stanko Milov is an irrepressible artist on the ballet stage, and also on the piano" Stewart Kershaw, FRAM (Fellow of the Royal Academy of Music), Music Director and Conductor of the Pacific Northwest Ballet. "Having had the honor of conducting for Stanko Milov and enjoying his artistry as a dancer, I was pleasantly surprised to discover that his artistry extends to the piano performance and composition. Bravo to his premiere album of enchanting melodies" John Stubbs, Music Director and Conductor of the California Ballet in San Diego and violinist at the San Diego Symphony "In Heartfeltt, it seems like Stanko Milov dances with his fingers." David Lanz, Grammy-Nominated Composer and Pianist
