She won the 1997 Achievement Award for the best portrayal of Mahaliah Jackson, with vocal sounds to the likes of Aretha Franklin and Patti LaBelle. Along with that; Sylvia has sang back up for many Gospel greats such as Beverly Crawford, Twinkie Clark Terrell, Monique Walker (wife of Hezekiah Walker) and had featured solo spot for Shirley Caesar. She was featured on Dr. Jeffery P. Kees debut CD Shout it Out singing the ballad Benediction. She is also featured on The Gospel Compilation, A Gospel Celebration and Pastor E.T. Parker Friends project, There is a Word from the Lord. She is one of the most sought after vocalist in Ohio. Sylvia has a sweet spirit and an amazing range that is all Sylvia. Although she has the gift to play the keyboard, percussion and bass guitar, her first love is ministry. Sylvia was called to preach at the age of 12; however she left the church and began singing the blues in clubs around Ohio. After a near fatal experience steaming from a domestic violence situation, Sylvia made the decision to fully commit her life to the Lord. After being set free and delivered by the power of God, Sylvia established a Womens Ministry called, Charisma Women. Sylvia is also Co-Pastor of Key to the Kingdom Ministries where her husband Thomas A. Benson is Sr. Pastor. They are the proud parents of 5 children 4 boys and 1 girl. Sylvia brings a special blend of anointed vocals, praise worship and the word of God that promises to bring the anointing that destroys the yoke of bondage. Mathew 16:19
