The Badways are an original rock and roll band from Detroit. They take their rock very seriously. But their roll suffers from having too much fun. Bubblegum flavored pop garage. Melding of current Detroit scene sound with more tuneful modern rock and pop flavors. These guys are worth a look if you're after something new! *review from the Lager House website Since the summer of 2003, The Badways have been taking a little bit of everything they've ever heard to make something new and fresh. Todd brings a rougher rock sound to the mix while Mike tries to smooth out the rough edges with a touch of pop. And it wouldn't be complete without the rockin' rhythm section made up of Detroit's own Webster Brothers. Performing in and around Detroit Rock City, the Badways never fail to entertain. Make sure you catch them soon..you won't be disappointed.
