Stupid Music For Intelligent People! Remix Album with additional new tracks. 13 MP3 Songs

ELECTRONIC: Techno, ELECTRONIC: Experimental Details: Thine Eyes formed in 1991 when Laird Sheldahl and Tanner Volz, two shaggy-headed blondes attending the University of Oregon, exchanged tapes and found the makings of a collaborative fit. We spent the next several years at Future Music Oregon under the guidance of atonal-composer and computer-music-extremist Dr. Jeffrey Stolet. This time brought a cinematic tone to the ethereal and industrial music of our youth. It also brought our third member, (and sole red-head) Rian Callahan. We released two CD's as "Thine Eyes" though Portland, OR's , Doppler Effect records. "Christian Sex Loops" and "My Knobs Taste Funny" document our transition from not-quite-being-industrial to definitely-being-an "Intelligent Dance Music" band. Since the new millennium, we've been writing tons of music, playing live, and have changed our band name to "ML".
