Lyrics are what separate good rappers and great emcees, and T.Threats proves it with his self-produced debut album "Long Time Coming". 12 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Hip Hop, HIP HOP/RAP: Rap Details: Long Time Coming is the debut album from T.Threats. It features T.Threats on the production side also, producing 11 of the 12 tracks. Recorded in Stockton, California, it features 2 Da Face recording artist Tizzle, the No.1 independent label and artist in Northern California. With solid lyrics and melodic beats, listeners are taken in by songs such as "Get It" and "For My People", while songs like "Average" and "Chill" showcase lyrical ability not seen by many up and coming artists. Having been a part of the Audio Might Presents... compilation as his first release in 2002, he was featured on 12 of the 18 songs, and received a "Best of 2002" in Northern Cali's Central Valley by Murder Dog magazine. He first started rapping at the age of 13, but started taking it seriously his senior year in high school. Trying to get noticed since 1998, he has taken his career in his own hands, going the independent route and forming All Around Entertainment. Now living back in his hometown of Detroit, he is preparing for the release of his next album and DVD, but in the meantime he is releasing mixtapes to build a buzz for his next project, which will be released in 2005. With this being his debut, not only as a rapper but as a producer, he has proven why it has been a Long Time Coming.
