Can the call of the open road defeat the lure of a loving heart? What's a woman to do when her husband of over twenty years decides to move on to greener and younger pastures? She moves on, too! This is precisely what Margaret Murphy Ryder - Murph to just about everyone - does. Leaving her husband isn't so bad...she's gained a motorhome. Selling all her property and going on the road to find herself and rediscover her passion seems like a good idea at the time. But eventually traveling alone goes sour. Spoonbill Beach, Louisiana, needs someone to buy and maintain its failing RV park. Ladies' man Captain Jack Snow needs a new conquest. And Lee Soloman, a long-lost lover of Murph's - and a hard-core biker - has needs he hardly dares mention. Forthright, fearless and funny, Murph might just fit any or all of these bills...if her newfound freedom isn't too threatened. In the end, Murph must decide if her true destination is a relaxed romance and a place to call home.
