Puma is a sports lifestyle company that originally started as a German shoe factory that specialized on football shoes and running spikes in the late 40's. In more than sixty years of existence, Puma has experienced the highest highs as well as the lowest lows. During this time, Puma maintained its expertise in the field of football shoes and now belongs to a small leading group of brands, developing and selling the best football shoes worldwide. This paper focuses on analyzing Puma's position on the market in the field of football shoes, examining its strengths and weaknesses, while also describing the market in general by using Porter's Five Forces as well as exploring the influences on the market by doing a PEST-Analysis. Taking this into consideration, the paper discusses where Puma Football might achieve a unique selling proposition and how their marketing objective and strategy looks like.
