"Mixing rock, folk, and pop conventions with an edgy ease (and doing so in the 16-minutes-a-side whirlwind pace of the 60s vinyl era), Captain Wilberforce crafts darkly beautiful three-minute gems" - Amplifier Magazine 11 MP3 Songs POP: Power Pop, POP: British Pop Details: It's really well done and my mind starts to think of names like Jon Brion, Brendan Benson, Josh Fix, Squeeze, Jason Falkner and Tim Finn. 4 Stars. A very good album. melodic.net Its still grounded in the finest British pop influences e.g. the Beatles, the Who (by way of Guided By Voices), XTC, Barrett, Bowie, Costello, Hitchcock et al. The highlights come thick and fast. Make sure you decide to possess this essential recording. powerofpop.com Its really good and its a damned sight better than whatever youre hearing on your local modern rock for people with kids radio station. RetroLoFi 'Everybody Loves A Villain' by Captain Wilberforce is a superb piece of British pop-rock that deserves to do well - every minute a pleasure - every inch a winner - tremendous stuff!! ToxicPete People who are interested in Will Smith Squeeze The Shins Elliot should consider this download.
