Six talking-song adventures from the book about a loveable but inconsiderate Polar Bear as he learns lessons the hard way. Love from Aunt Janie 6 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: Children's Storytelling, COUNTRY: Bluegrass Show all album songs: Skruffy the Teenage Polar Bear Songs Details: These songs are based upon stories from a childrens book that has been popular for two generations among the family and friends of the author and composer, Janie Tate. The character as a homemade, bandaged stuffed bear, was created as a Christmas decoration for the hospital where Janie worked as a nurse and the stories developed from that concept. Her musical and eketronic abilities generated this album. A draft script is now being marketed to animated movie producers. The story and songs contain trouble, quirky characters, hard lessons, and global warming adventures for this loveable, bungling Polar Bear. All he wants is to be important, get some respect, and be a rock star. Oh, and go wild and have lots of fun, too. Hes a little bit generous and a little bit selfish. Sound like your normal teenager? Almost but not quite, SKRUFFY is a teenage Polar Bear. Growling and gamboling, playing tricks and barging in, Skruffy annoys just about everybody -- other Polar Bears, Eskimos, the military, oilfield workers, the Tierra Club, and other Arctic inhabitants, including Santa Clauss Elves and reindeer. Hes a bit of a jerk that only his mother can love. Oh, and the cute little polar bear down the road likes him, too. Skruffy trundles his way into all kinds of trouble, learning hard lessons along the way and becoming, sort of kind of, a better bear. I have had experience with parents hiding this CD because their child plays it over and over. I need to warn you about that. Please send me any similar stories. Aunt Janie, Box 44 Albion CA 95410 I love to share this character.
