Acoustic fingerstyle guitar featuring a variety of music - country blues, traditional Celtic tunes, etc. Interesting and soothing music, from Moby Grape's "8:05" to Turlough O'Carolan's "Fanny Power". Beautiful all digital recording. 14 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Blues, EASY LISTENING: Mood Music Details: John Palermo has written songs for Graham Nash (Atlantic Records), George Lamond (CBS/Sony), Desiree Coleman (Motown), Eyra Gale (24/7), etc. A recording engineer as well, John has worked with The Rolling Stones, Hall Oates, Billy Joel, Joni Mitchell, Deborah Harry, AC/DC, The Clash and numerous other major artists. This is his solo acoustic fingerstyle guitar CD, featuring a variety of music. The CD leads off with one of his favorite songs, Moby Grape's "8:05", which he beautifully arranged. The rest of the CD features country blues, Celtic tunes and one of John's originals. The hidden track is a moving rendition of "My Funny Valentine". John lives in semi-rural Randolph, New Jersey. The title of the CD, Music from Dismal Brook, comes from the body of water that runs behind his home. This is where he worked out the music on this CD. This babbling brook is actually quite beautiful and peaceful, not at all dismal. The CD is digitally recorded and sounds great on all systems. Please email comments to dupecoop@mac.com.
