Featuring "Proud to be an American,How about you!" I wrote this song after watching a news program. I felt that the program was cutting down America American. America is a great country and Americans are great people. We are a nation of laws and freedoms and we the people need to keep that forever. May God bless America.

"That's country dance'n" if you like country music you'll love this song. It's got a great country feel. I wrote this for all those country line dancer, two steppers, and crazy acting country folks. "Everytime I write love songs" I love the guitar in this song. Played by Merle Kidd of Alaska. I wrote this for the love in my life. Cindi "Evil King" I wrote this song back in 1990 during the gulf war. I just wish world would have finish the job back then against the Iraq leader. "I just want your love" My good friend Rich played the lead guitar I really like this song. "Love can hurt so bad" We've all been there, If you know what mean. "# 1 in my book" I once had a little black book myself back in my younger days. This song talks about that. Merle Kid plays a great lead in this song with one take. This is a Rock'n song. "Fishing Alaska style" My Uncle Jeff asked me to write this song for his fishing guide business. I lived in Alaska for 17 years and I caught my share of fish. The biggest salmon I caught was 49 lb's. . Now that's a fish.
