Some of his most requested and signature songs are included--about 70 of the album is Gospel, but all of the songs carry a positive message as is the Lynn Beckman style. When Lynn appears in his home state of Maryland, one of his most requested songs is, "My Homeland Is Maryland," the second track on this album. Lynn says in reference to the song, "I am pleased that the people of Maryland love the song and have taken to it as they have. My home state is one of the most diverse in the nation, and few people outside of Maryland realize that. It stretches from the ocean to the Chesapeake Bay and from the Bay to the mountain lands of Garrett County, my home county. The song covers the whole state and speaks of its heritage and significance in history." Copies of the song have been provided to Maryland Governors, legislators, and bureau chiefs with appreciation and recognition to the writer and singer. There are not many, if any, songs about Maryland like there are about NY, WV, TN, CA, PA, VA, etc. So, Lynn Beckman says, "I wrote one about MD thinking it was high time my home state had a song, too!" As the album title suggests, there are positive message and Gospel songs that come from nearly every area of life. Included are ballads, praise and thanksgiving themes, stories of loss, decision-making, spiritual struggles, and victory--even the ultimate victory of the return of Jesus Christ and the catching away of the Church as related in the song "The Rapture" co-written with Lynn's wife, Mary Virginia Beckman. Another of Lynn's most requested songs is "A Child Of The King" contained in this album. This is a "must-have"

album for collectors of Lynn Beckman music and for every country-Gospel genre fan who wants a cd that will remain a favorite in the cd player and make round after round in listening enjoyment.
