New Era is a mixture of British lesbian R'n'B, Soul and Hip Hop with catchy hooks and strong lyrical content. This album is recommended as one to grasp by afterellen.com 14 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: R&B Rap mix, HIP HOP/RAP: Alternative Hip Hop Details: UK based lesbian hip-hopper Mz Fontaine has exploded on the music scene across her homeland, Europe and the USA. With her performances, professionalism, production skills and style, Mz Fontaine stands out as the smoother, Jack-Daniels-on-the-rocks drinking future star with a unique voice and a hardcore chick attitude that's as cool as Missy Elliot or Kelis. (EuroPride Magazine, UK, July 2006). The best phrase to describe Mz Fontaine's performance is a shining light which gently ignites the audience from a small cosy glow into an intensely liberating explosion of energy. It is hard to believe that this young star is the same person who once claimed of having stage fright. With infectious melodies and controversial lyrics lesbian rapper and singer Mz Fontaine is set for international stardom. For those of you who don't know, we urge you to take a sit and embrace the most exciting British import since metrosexual power couple David Beckham and Posh Spice. (GoNYC Magazine, USA, Aug 2006). Mz Fontaine is a twenty-first-century musician, [part] of a new wave to grace the music industry. (Time Out London, UK, June 2006). This album this is definitely an album to check out for its contagiously danceable singles, and for Mz Fontaine's invigorating and unapologetic claims to her rights as a human and a butch woman. (AfterEllen.com) Mz Fontaine has been featured on regional, national and international television as well as in a number of mainstream and LGBT press outlets such as G3 Magazine, Boyz Magazine, FemFire Magazine, The Pink Paper, Portland Observer, Lesbia Magazine, GayNews, Lesbian Nation and MOC Magazine to list a few. Mz Fontaine is represented by LGBT label Fondation Entertainment for more information on the extensive work Fondation Entertainment provides to assist and promote LGBT artists, visit fondationentz.com
