One reviewer wrote: Neuropa is a great synth-pop band from Australia that are truly fantastic. They bring back the memory of the 80's synth-pop days with today's technology. There is lots of great songs here. Wonderfully orchestrated synth sounds that will make you dance for most of the album along with fantastic lyrics that will soothe your soul and make you escape reality. The vocals are amazing as it sounds somewhere in between Andy Bell of ERASURE, Claude S. of ANYTHING BOX and Mark Reynolds of RED FLAG.
