The Rootbeer Reunion is comprised of three very talented boys. Braden, Kort, and Trae Fuller of Wellsville, Utah have been dazzling audiences for the past few years with their musical abilities and Old-West style. These boys are fluent on several different instruments and can yodel up a storm! During their show, the boys entertain with guitars, fiddle, flutes, irish whistle, and bass as well as a bit of good-natured humor. Don't be fooled as to whether these boys are store-bought cowboys or not.... they are the genuine thing! Braden is a 13 year old musical wonder! From a very early age he mastered classical flute, and has taken his knowledge to many different instruments. He plays fiddle, guitar, flute, irish whistle, bass, sings and yodels. He considers the guitar to be his favorite instrument. Regular updates will be added on this site in an attempt to keep up with the changing key and range of his voice (it is going down a little more each week). Kort is an 9 year old package of musical dynamite! He plays the flute, Irish whistle, guitar, upright bass, various percussion, and sings and yodels. He has a knack for entertainment and acts as the duo's comedy-relief. Trae Fuller age 5 is fast becoming a regular part of the Rootbeer Reunion. He sings, yodels a bit, and is learning how to play the flute. He helps with comedy relief during the show and is always excited to play the part of the 'cow' during 'Orange Blossom Special'. Welcome to the show, Trae!
