soothing yet enchanting classic guitar visions 13 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Mood Music, GOSPEL: Traditional Gospel Details: Rosalie Glemann is a classical guitarist who specializes in discovering the magic of musical miniatures. She originally studied with a student of Segovia. Being a "closet" songwriter for many years, as well as a guitar instructor, music is second nature to her. She has designed original solo stylings of many many songs. She also enjoys what she calls "reading pages from the book of creation"... exploring computer graphics of nature images. Her latest venture is illustrating songs (her own or others) with slideshows text, and then recording them on DVDs. One of her original songs was recently part of a multi-media presentation in a church setting, the slideshow projected large-screen as it was sung live by an artist friend. It was a very powerful experience. The Christmas Guitar CD concept was born 2 years ago, at a Christmas Eve candlelight service, where Rosalie played some of her guitar solos. So many people raved about the music afterward, she was asked for a recording. The CD graphics were all designed by Rosalie; and she used a watercolor painting done by her husband for the cover. The CDs make great Christmas gifts!
