Details: I have been singing, Im sure, since before I could even complete a sentence. My inspiration comes from my father, who would use me as his back up singer whether riding around in the car, at home or with his band. I can remember back to the time when I was 5 years old and the alarm clock would go off every morning to get us up for school. The first thing I would hear were those original country classics songs that I love. From Charlie Pride, George Jones, Conway Twitty to Ronnie Milsap and Alabama. I would sit there waiting to see if "I Wouldnt Have Missed It For The World" by Ronnie Milsap would play. I wouldnt move at all. I had a suitcase-looking record player that I would rush home to after school and listen to all my 45s. Those were the days. When I was 8, I had the opportunity to sing with my dads band at the Spur in Raton New Mexico, our home town at the time. Thats when I knew that someday I would love to write and sing my own music. I am so excited and grateful that I have this opportunity to share my music with you.
