Very "2pac...ish", well written, bright and musical 5 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Rap, HIP HOP/RAP: Alternative Hip Hop Details: Shakka is one of Harlem N.Y's best kept secrets, a rapper who sounds eerily, unabashedly, and unashamedly like the late great Tupac (2Pac) Shakur. When asked about the reasons for the uncanny similarities in the writing, vocal, and delivery styles between the two of them, Shakka simply replies that "Pac was the teacher and I was the student. He was teaching and I was learning, I was listening and paying attention. It's as if he was saying (possibly to me personally) that "If you're going to rap, then this is how you do it, and if you sayin' sumpthin' then this is how you say it!" Shakka says "I'm sure that there are many people out there who feel as if I've infringed upon 'Hallowed' ground' and maybe even rightfully so, but I would remind them of the old saying that just like 'gangsta' recognizes gangsta" so does 'Hallowed (Holy) recognize Hallowed (Holy) ". Shakka continues "I make music cause it's in me like a muthaf@#ka and because it's close to and comes from my heart! And if you listen to my music you can tell that that's true. Everybody's not going to like my music, and I'm O.K. with that, but for those who appreciate heart, thought, effort and something even remotely resembling talent, I am completely confident that those people will find 'something' of value in the music that I make." (NUFF SAID !)
