Details: When Bill LaWarre asked his friend, dobro great Gene Bush, to organize a series of recording sessions for him, he wanted nothing more than a sentimental record of the music hed made with his kids throughout their lifetimes. What he ended up with is a near-masterpiece of an album featuring the gorgeous voices of his son Josh and daughter Summer in a delightful romp down Bluegrass Lane. Music had been at the center of the happiest of times for the LaWarre family; this CD represents the boundless expression of that joy. Musicians on the project are Bill LaWarre, harmony vocals and mandolin, Josh LaWarre on lead vocals and guitar, Summer Skrzelowski LaWarre on harmony vocals, Gene Bush on dobro, Buddy Griffin on fiddle, Eddie Cunningham on guitar, and Wayne Cliburn on banjo. The album includes two spot-on arrangements of Monroe instrumentals showcasing Bills Lloyd Loar -- plus a classic Carter Family tune, a Jimmy Martin favorite, contemporary bluegrass songs penned by Steve Earle and Tim OBrien, great gospel goodies, and Joshs first-class cover of He Stopped Loving Her Today. The CD was co-produced by Alan OBryant of the Nashville Bluegrass Band and Bill LaWarre, at OBanyons Terrace Studio located in Pegram, Tennessee, just outside Nashville, in the summer of 2008. Theyll probably never be famous. But the LaWarre Family isnt much interested in that kind of future. Their focus is on making good music and gettin it right. So dont be surprised if you find yourself putting the LaWarre Family album on again and again to recapture the mood.
