

Soviet Heat In The Cold War - Sean Roberts

Working for an accountancy firm in the North East of England, James Bonaldy's life was fairly boring as his everyday life trudged on. Then he met an English gentleman at a hotel lobby with a very sinister proposition. He was plunged into a world of lies, deceit and women. Torn between his sexual needs, the Russian secret service and the British Government, he was totally out of his depth. The Cold War became boiling hot as his deceits were unravelled by dangerous men and equally dangerous women who honey-trapped him into betrayal. On his own he was battling with two Intelligence agencies and his need for sexual gratification. He had no choice but to fight to the end. This book grabs you at the start and keeps you needing to know the outcome.
