LUNOX and ASTRO combine skill with style on a track like Mohamed Ali in a ring. LUNOX commands attention with a serious streetwise delivery while ASTROs dialog will make you want to pull out a dictionary. Not only are they nice but are entirely self sufficient with in house production from ASTRO. 360 INFINITE has performed with artists such as FAT JOE and THE TERROR SQUAD, 50 CENT, LLOYD BANKS and YOUNG BUCK of G-UNIT, GURU from GANGSTARR, KRUMBSNATCHA and LITTLE SCRAPPY just to name a few. In 2006, INSCAPE Records will release 360 INFINITEs debut album with high expectations. Not only is their Hispanic heritage part of the flavor but it is also a huge portion of the hip hop culture feels represented. Songs like MY HOOD and TRUST ME, speak of oppression and the sometimes overwhelming struggle for success. While songs like BOOTY and WHAT CHU THINK MA? display charismatic wordplay, cutting edge production and catchy hooks. LUNOX and ASTRO are always a step ahead, whether its with a club anthem like WE GOT THAT, or a story being vividly told like CONFRONTATION. The duo raised in Lawrence, MA, is set to supply the demand in the market. With the intentions of bringing hip hop to its roots, 360 INFINITE will brand their name on the map.
