Ari Gold is ready to surprise his fans and confound the skeptics with the release of his new single and video Human. The follow-up to the Top 10 Billboard Dance hit and LOGOs #1 Video of the Year (Where The Music Takes You), comes Human--a reworking of the 80s hit by the Human League written by Jimmy Jam and Terry Lewis. With a rap by hip-hop artist Mr. Man, the song is no longer about cheating on a girlfriend but has new meaning and relevancy to become a human rights anthem for our time. The video, directed by the imaginative and innovative NYC photographer Aaron Cobbett, takes the song into a fantasy world, bringing the fairy back into the fairy tale; where Little Red Riding Hood meets Narcissus meets the E.T. with inspiration from influential gay photographers like James Bidgood and Pierre et Gilles to videos by Bjork and Madonna.
