Jason Hendricks is a instrumental guitarist combining the influences of Yngwie Malmsteen, Steve Vai, Joe Satriani, Bach, Beethoven, and Mozart into his own unique style of neo-classical rock music. Heavy, Melodic, and Finesse all in one. 14 MP3 Songs METAL: Instrumental Metal, ROCK: Hard Rock Details: UPDATE August 27, 2005!!! O.k. everyone as you might have noticed. I haven't been around much. With the demise of mp3back in 2004 and Metalprovider.com(my website host)demise as well I've been pretty much in the hiatus. Well I'm finally getting back to normal. Have a new official website!! jasonhendricks.bravehost.com I know its a bit familiar as much from the metalprovider website came over to the new one. Check it out. I've got news and updates!! Also I know that my CD's have been out of stock for awhile now. Finally have gotten some more of them. Though I do have a small supply that I'll be sending to CDbaby to distribute them. Once this batch of CD's is gone they will be gone forever. No more "Event Horizon" or "Electric Guitar and Orchestra Concerto No.1". There should be enough copies to go around though. I believe there will be about 25 copies of both CD's available. So if you've been waiting for the CD's to comeback. Well here they will be soon in about a week or so!! First thing monday August 29th I'll be mailing them out to cdbaby. So keep checking back here for updates. Also keep checking back with my Official website for updates, news, music links and more!! Thanks for everyone who has been a fan through the past years or just a listener who enjoys guitar music. I appreciate everyone that I've talked to over the years. Radio stations around the world that have played my music as well. Hopefully I'll finally be able to get my latest work. "The Great Controversy". You can read more about it at my website, but save to say its been a work in the makings. Its been done since late Dec. 2003. Was reading to go on MP3just as their demise hit. So its been waiting in the wings for the past year and a half. I'm itching to get it out. You can hear 1 track from the new album at: music.download.com/jasonhendricks Check it out!! Once again thanks to everyone for their support. I can't thank CDbaby enough for also getting my music out to many of the major digital music distributing websites i.e.(Apple Itunes, REAL, Musicbox and many many more.) Well hope to have the music old and new ready for everyone very very soon. God Bless, Jason

ARTIST INFO: Born Bill Jason Hendricks, on July 8th 1980. Born to two loving parents Bill and Gracie Hendricks. Since a child he has been immersed with a wide variety of different musical genres. Metal, Classical, and Flamenco were the main influences in his young ears. From years with being with his father who listened to early hard rock such as Deep Purple, Black Sabbath, Cream. His mother gave him the influences of the Spanish culture. Flamenco and traditional spanish music were always being played. And his Grandparents who with the aid of his parents brough Classical music into the picture. Wanting the play the guitar since he was 7 never really had the discipline or the attentiveness for the instrument til he was the age of 15. "I've always wanted to play the guitar. When I turned 15 something inside its time to buy a guitar. Bought my first guitar and then I was blown away by a guitarist by the name of Joe Satriani. Astounded I wanted to play like that. Then came Steve Vai and of course Yngwie J. Malmsteen. I knew then what I was going to play on the guitar. I was going to be a fusion of my three main and biggest influences. Now everyday since then when I first heard the three masters of the guitar I have set my sights forward to become a proficient guitarist. Always being a perfectionist and trying to accomplish my goals. Now I have written two CD's that I bring to you. One is a Rock EP and the other is my Classical Concerto that I have written in the past 6 months. The Rock EP will be available first. With the Concerto following shortly. I also had a dream when I was 8 years old. My elementary school took my class to see the local symphony all the time. Intrigued by the explosivness of the orchestra I was enamored with the notion of being able to have the Guitar with the orchestra. My obession with the guitar and symphony has always been with me but never materialized til this year. After Yngwie Malmsteen wrote and performed his Classical piece. I was inspired to do the same for myself. Having the previous thought that my idea would not work was only boosted by his composition and performance. Hopefully with GOD's help I will get to perform my classical concerto with a symphony and that to me would be a GOAL achieved and I would owe it all to the Glory of God..
