Home grown, acoustic popular originals from the heart, songs written during John's personal journey through life in the Midwest and New England. 17 MP3 Songs POP: Folky Pop, FOLK: Folk Pop Details: John Hanekamp writes home grown, acoustic popular originals from the heart. These songs were written during his personal journey through life in the Midwest and New England. John enhances these unique sounds with accomplished musicians that have become good friends over time. In this album, Gary Babin adds a unique contribution with his lyrical and melodic guitar style and his flowing harmonies. Long time close friend, Angela Eleazar, joins him to write lyrics for some of the songs, and contributes the photos for this album. Her love of Martha's Vineyard brings the group to this live performance on this island. Coming together with his friends and bringing these unique songs to the audience in this beautiful setting makes listening to this album, performed live at the Tabernacle in Martha's Vineyard, a most enjoyable experience.
