Clear and soulful vocals. Insightful songwriting supported by hypnotic rhythm. 12 MP3 Songs ROCK: Folk Rock, LATIN: General Details: "Stargazer" is Lily Wilson's third independent CD; and is the result of her recent collaboration with producer, Mark Browne (bass player for Melissa Etheridge and Paula Cole.) Much of the inspiration for the album's twelve new songs came from Lily's solo trip through South America. There is a latin influence that can be felt throughout the album- especially in the two spanish tracks, "Nada Para Mi," and "Trabajar." But mostly, the songs reflect a deep sense of adventure and self-exploration. "I'm very proud of this record, and it feels more like me than anything I've ever done." Lily had the golden opportunity to co-write with a few of her favorite artists like Debra Davis on "Heavy Heart," Susie Hug on "Morning Light," and Mark Browne on "I Listen to You." A brilliant group of all-star musicians graces the tracks of "Stargazer," giving shine and groove to Lily's honest lyrics. This album gracefully leads the listener through a full spectrum of moods while never losing it's compelling momentum.
