Related styles: FOLK: Appalachian Folk, ROCK: Instrumental Rock Details: Michael Futreal wants to take Appalachian mountain dulcimer everywhere it can go, playing original music ranging from rock-infused yet traditional-style solo instrumentals to full-on productions with guitar, flute, harmonica, etc. Both acoustic dulcimers and electric dulcimers are brought to bear when Dulcimers Are Go. Take a listen to the track "Flags," to see how an electric dulcimer can credibly bring the sound of Knopfler's Les Paul to a solo instrumental that's clearly as mountain dulcimer sweet as anything from Blue Ridge. Check out "Wire Mountain in Spring" to hear how a solo acoustic dulcimer can drive it into rock idioms, sounding at times like two guitars.
