Is it a concept album or a message from a distant planet? This Reggastical CD features the cream of the crop from NYC's Reggae scene. Vocalists: Original Smurph, Marcia Davis, Simone Gordon, Keith Johnston, Milo, Charmaine DaCosta, Maggie Roche, others 16 MP3 Songs WORLD: Reggae, POP: Quirky Details: Yo! Exclusive FREE DOWNLOADS at NYC-REGGAE.com. The CD is composed mostly of original songs by Louie Fleck that deal loosely and directly with the idea of alienation in the psychological sense and also with some science fiction ramifications! Of course, the music is heavily Reggae influenced, but it crosses over many stylistic boundaries and operates on several levels. Just like New York, there are numerous surprises lurking in every corner of this CD, but you have to hear it to understand! Some of the best New York based musicians and performers are appearing on the CD such as: Original Smurph, Marcia Davis (Outro), Brian "Milo" Lowe (The MOT!VES, Shaka Milo), Ronnie Butler (Israel Vibrations, Eek, Meditations), Charmaine DaCosta (Wirl-A-Girl), Maggie Roche (The Roches), Simone Gordon (Outro), Calvin Kristi, Keith Johnston (Lisa-Lisa Cult Jam), Papa Linley, Bela Fleck (banjo), Pamela Kurstin (theremin), Laury Webb (Meditations, Eek) Pam Fleming (trumpet), Dan Levine (trombone), Jenny Hill (sax), and many others. For over 5 years, our weekly Reggae jam has brought together a diverse group of people who love to make Reggae music in all of its permutations. Everyone who performs on this CD has been part of that experience. Now it's time for you to join us! Get a copy of this CD, you really don't want to miss this one, seen!
