A bluegrass tribute to the music of Uncle Dave Macon, with Byron Berline, Dan Crary, Dennis Caplinger others. 19 MP3 Songs FOLK: Traditional Folk, COUNTRY: Bluegrass Details: A collection of 14 songs and tunes associated with Uncle Dave Macon, "The Dixie Dewdrop", first star of the Grand Ol' Opry. Performed by Peter with Byron Berline - fiddle, Dan Crary - guitar, Dennis Caplinger - banjo, Wayne Shrusball - banjo, and Bill Bryson - bass. "YOU'VE DONE IT! ... Great sound, great job, great layout! .. high quality workmanship, both visually and audio." - Dave Macon (Uncle Dave's grandson) "What a wonderful recording ... exceptional!" - David Holt "A unique idea! .. well produced by excellent musicians..." - Mike Seeger While Uncle Dave was an "old time" musician, we've arranged and adapted these songs into bluegrass format, often with two banjos, fiddle, mandolin, bass, and guitar. Singing ranges from solo vocals to four and five-part harmonies. The musicians here are all top notch, with 3 time National fiddle champion Byron Berline, Dennis Caplinger of "Bluegrass Etc." on banjo, Dan Crary, king of the flatpick guitar players, Bill Bryson of "Desert Rose" on bass, and Banjo Newsletter columnist Wayne Shrusball on clawhammer banjo. Peter Feldmann is a long-time bluegrass favorite in California; founder of the Santa Barbara Fiddlers' Convention, the famous Bluebird Cafe (Santa Barbara), with more than 21 years' of experience on radio, television, and recordings. He can also be heard with his band "Peter Feldmann The Very Lonesome Boys", based in California's beautiful Santa Ynez Valley.
