 PEOPLE SAY ABOUT PHYLLIS MUSIC: "The way she takes the stage reminds me of the first time I saw Ferron perform in the early 80's...Phyllis Tannerfrye is riveting and visionary..." - Annie Gallup, Beat Poet Songwriter Artist "Many of us know how difficult it is to write a song, even more to deliver the message effectively. Phyllis is blessed with the gift of an expressive delivery that enhances the tapestry she weaves with words." -Charlie Tucker, FLAT ROCK FESTIVALS, Hendersonville, NC "Phyllis is an artist who refuses narrow categorization. Her talents as a AMERICAN singer songwriter are far too broad for that. I don't want to take this CD out of my player." -David Butler, WQFS-FM, Greensboro, NC "This is what songwriting should be; Phyllis is a winner." -Beth Judy, SUWANNEE SPRINGFEST, Live Oak, FL

 "You will listen for the next twist of phrase in Phyllis' intricate lyrics and beautiful melodies. She has highly expressive vocal technique an engaging stage presence." -Bill Beckett, WUFT-FM, Jacksonville, FL
 "Phyllis has a powerful voice with bluesy overtones, and her songs are exquisitely crafted and emotionally compelling." -Charlotte Folk Society, Oct'02

..... A LITTLE BIOGRAPHY phyllis grew up singin the gospel in a big baptist family in georgetown county, south carolina, the cool summertime dirt road between her toes. with a head full of dylan, she left the church for rock 'n roll in the seventies ... then in the mid-eighties she left rock 'n roll to raise her young'un, and turned into a song recluse on a mission. her inspiration burst and she landed on the highway in 2001. now she's on the road lookin for song lovers like you. NOTES TO MYSELF... PHYLLIS QUESTIONS

... what is the difference between the muse and god? ..what makes the cross on the moon? boy, i need help. this paragraph is really out of place. so am i sometimes... it's time for me to make a REAL webpage!!... when i finish this cd... when i get darby settled... when the cows come home. mooooooo. comin home is a big part of my life; so is leavin, drivin. proverbial prodigals. WRITE ME.

MONTH OF AUGUST... I'm followin Darby around ... wherever she goes. because she's off to college in september... the only trouble with having such a great child is that she will grow away from you, and leave you with a big hole. I reckon the trouble comes in thinking i HAVE her at all. she doesn't belong to me, obviously. where do we get that? Boy, her friends don't know how lucky they're gonna be. I'm tryin to let em have her, but it is NOT EASY... and hard to concentrate on finishing the cd. ... maybe christmas... well, there IS a CHRISTMAS song on it. it's called 'rock a baby.' ... you gotta rock a baby, or they'd leave you even earlier. hmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmm MORE BACKWARDS... July 31 '05 CREEK, South Carolina. "Lowcountry backwater is the heart of Phyllis Tannerfrye, the songwriter. The heart, where the life starts...where the journey begins. Her music is southern, but it comes from somewhere way beyond the creeks marshes of her Georgetown County home. The songs tell us stories about people and places. Some we want to walk right up to and touch; some we want to visit only through her voice and guitar, like the rain-soaked alley in a dark city night. She tells us about herself and she tells us about ourselves. This music is Life, and it isn't narrow in scope or subject...it moves...like water. Like a river. It takes us past places so familiar that we know exactly where they are, but she shows them to us from another side...from the river. And she takes us into canyons that we would never think to enter without her as guide. It's a long river...and a wonderful ride. Welcome aboard." ... -MICHAEL RENO HARRELL, the Producer ...voted Charlotte's Best Songwriter / also MERLEFEST Song Champion.

LYRICS ... OLD WOMAN: 2000 phyllis tannerfrye / liontooth music ... i am an old, old woman i'm old and free at last free of the trouble and heartache i could not let go in the past trouble keeps the women busy and heartache would keep me on the ground but I got to let go every worry and hold on this freedom i've found trouble comes knockin at my back door every day i don't listen what that cold wind say it keeps me rockin, can't stop it anyway but there's a blue, blue sky above this cloudy day sometimes i can see my light come shinin all the way from abraham to me when the light is bigger than the shadow the blue sky is easy to see trouble comes knockin. . . yeah, i-i, i'm an old, old woman and i know i did not come here to stay everybody on this train goin somewhere and somewhere there's an uncloudy day trouble comes knockin.NEW SONGS:..... october 2004 (clapping song) "daddy said we need to keep on prayin for each other til the kingdom comes.2X not just sunday mornin, no the time to pray is now workin in the garden, children hold on to your plow. daddy said we need to see the beauty in each other and around us too.2X not just in the people, no, no, not just you me beauty all around us only open eyes can see, yeah. hmmm hmmm hmmm hmmm hmmm hmmm hmmm hmmm ... " (that was the difficult line) august 10, 2004 "i'm a road sign on your way to heaven... and here you come outa the blue... you come a guzzalin and revvin... and i just get one fleeting glimpse of you.. but i'm standin my ground, hopin you will see no matter where you're bound, you can follow me... .. i become a yield sign to keep you from colliding... just a reminder, WE GOTTA GIVE ..." ...PHYLLIS NOTES: JULY 05 ... We got to work in the Kruger Brothers' Studio last week, Wilkesboro ...great experience, wonderful people. now i'm listening to lots of tracks...great musicians...it's like working backwards. . . i hope it won't SOUND backwards..... i like WALKING backwards...especially on the beach, near my home, at Huntington State Park. the beach is wide, and i can close my eyes and walk backwards for a long time. it's a great thing to do, better than standing on my head. MAY 05 We had a great time at MerleFest this year. Find the Kruger Brothers'"Carolina in the Fall"...gorgeous song. MAR 05 Highlight of the month: off to Suwannee Springfest in Live Oak, FL with the family. We're pickin up and deliverin' musicians from the airport. FEB 05 We got the bass tracks done! The multitalented Tom Kuhn has given us the bottom line again..... wait til you hear what he's done with MAGNET ! it's just what it wanted. ... AND we had the privilege to work with Rick Blackwell, an extremely smooth and gracious musician (he plays bass for kathy mattea). JAN 05 It's MOLTING time... or HIBERNATION... it's a bumpy road... it'a time to turn...it's your turn, it's not my turn, it's not why, why, why... it just is..van morrison said part of that.. i said the rest... i had a dream and bob dylan was in it...since i was eleven he's been in my dream.. i wonder if he's ever dreamed of me.. not that he would have recognized me..... how would we know what we look like if we didn't have mirrors?

NOV 04 that trip to texas consumed us for a while. i'm still digesting it...and hoping soon to get down to following up some of the great contacts we made out there... i had six showcases over the weekend and made some great new friends. ...I FLEW!...with my guitar! and it wasn't so bad. i'm grateful. OCT 04 geez, stuff takes time. joe's studio (36th st, charlotte) was struck by lightning while he was on his honeymoon. hmmm... so we're waiting for that to come back together so we can get the honorable TOM KUHN in there to put down some bass tracks. tom is an excellent musician and teacher and human being for that matter... and a great friend. he plays in a number of different configurations around charlotte and beyond with his trio LUNATIC FRINGE and his big band THE STRAGGLERS. i'm honored to have him play on my record. SEPT 04 ...we copied the basic tracks and took em up to the 36th STREET STUDIOS, charlotte, engineered by the sound man from heaven, joe kuhlman from the EVENING MUSE ... picked up cindy novelo from the airport (all the way from lawrence, kansas) and she added her wonderful viola to "FOOTPRINTS" (me on the piano!) and on the ANGEL song. JULY 04 ...after kerrville, michael reno and jay miley (engineer, charleston recording studios)and me put down eight more tracks in the studio (CHARLESTON RECORDING STUDIOS, james island) and cleaned em up so they're ready for company. ... now we're studying them closely for INSTRUCTIONS. (the songs are in charge, you know... we obey.)  the SOUTH STRAND CONCERTS are a big hit here in murrells inlet sc. ...past future concerts: DAVID LAMOTTE Feb 2006 VERLON THOMPSON Aug 28 '05 JACK WILLIAMS Feb 13 '05 MICHAEL RENO HARRELL Dec 5 '04 SAM ANDERSON July 18 '04 GOVE SCRIVENOR May 9 '04 JONATHAN BYRD Jan 25 '04 CHUCK BRODSKY TBA ANNIE GALLUP TBA
