With passion for the age of synthesizer music and great sounds that they produce and freedom that they offer. 8 MP3 Songs in this album (36:50) ! Related styles: ELECTRONIC: Ambient, ELECTRONIC: Folktronic Details: The album "ELECTRIC DREAMS" was made in the period from 1996 till 1998 and it is a product of longtime accumulation of ideas in domain of electronic music. In the work of the album took part renowned musicians on percussions, bass guitar, clarinet also vocal too and with these acoustic elements Electric Dreams got one more dimension then the electronic one. The famous musician Sabit Tahiri, who unfortunately is no longer among us, played the percussions and therefore we give respect for the geniality which he had. On the song Skopje Bazaar, bass is played by the legendary bassplayer of the group "Leb i sol" Bodan Arsovski. On the last song "Looking for Jamaica", which is the only vocal song, the guitars were played by the famous Venko Serafimovski, and the vocalist is Leonora Poloska. She also sang the short vocal pieces which the other songs have. On the keyboard part there was help from the famous Damir Imeri and Vlatko Georgiev. The Album Electric Dreams has been made with great passion in the period when many musician tried to show themselves in the domain of electronic music.
