Limited to 100 copies. Handmade artwork by M. and Sharon each one is hand numbered through 100. The version of "Macaw" that appears on this EP is a "stripped down" version with drums --so it is very different from the version on "Diving Bell Shallows". The last track "Abraham Lincoln (new wave version)" originally appeared on the companion 2CD compilation of Copper Press Issue #27.(its the secret track on this ep...SHHhhhh) - "God, we love deep male voices sad music. Tindersticks, Willard Grant Conspiracy, Leonard Cohen, the Magnetic Fields, Nick Cave. Playing in this league is M who sings and writes for the band the Milling Gowns. There's no guitarist in the quartet; pianist Sharon Crumrine is the main instrumentalist. The songs on their debut EP are mostly slow, stately and sad. Gorgeous too. It's not the kind of music people tend to go out to see for a classic "good time." But the rewards are there and sometimes deeper." - Jim Sullivan
