Exploring the connection between Celtic and Nordic Traditional Music. 16 MP3 Songs in this album (54:56) ! Related styles: WORLD: Celtic, WORLD: Scandinavian Details: Performing together since 1985, Wherligig has delighted and educated audiences in the Mid-Atlantic region of the United States with the earthy sounds of acoustic Celtic and Nordic music. Wherligig's wide-ranging repertoire, drawn from the Celtic and Nordic traditions of Ireland, Scotland, Sweden, Cape Breton, Wales and Shetland has delighted audiences for years. In this versatile ensemble, Stephanie plays the hammered dulcimer and neo-Celtic harp. Ken plays the six- and twelve-string guitar, tin whistles, bones and the hurdy gurdy. Ryan plays the fiddle, tin whistle, nyckelharpa and psaltery. All members play the bodhran (the Irish drum) and Ryan provides the vocals. Ken has built or restored most of the instruments the ensemble uses during performances. His instruments are known for their beauty and tonality. Wherligig's love of traditional music and culture, as well as their joy in making music together as a family, adds a distinguishing quality to their performances.
