Code Name: Launch Train Greg Burton LAUNCH: Launchtrain Greg Burton gets interviewed - well, it's more like an interrogation... on the all-important technical aspects of launches. Greg has been the tech guy" behind some of the net's biggest launches. This subject is critical information to your success. If ignored, it could spell your failure. The very first thing a customer should see when they log into your Butterfly(tm) or membership-type site, and how this will increase your income. How to cut down on customer help desk requests -- even almost totally eliminate them. What is the magic percent of support questions that you should expect and if you get more then you know you have a problem. Learn how autoresponder hosts can cut off your service -- and you won't even know. Where should you host your help desk and how this should keep you out of trouble. And yes, there is one right answer! What you really need to look for in a server and what mistakes to avoid. Get this list of "red flags" that should send you running! Learn the importance of tress testing?and how this could save your butt on the first day of a launch. Right about now, if I were you, I'd be wondering how much this coveted information costs... Well, first let me ask you this: how much is it worth to be sure your Product Launch will be successful? Put another way... if one tip or idea from listening to this interview would make you an extra $10,000, $20,000, or more...would you pay $1,000 to know that information? IF YOU WERE SURE? Of course you would... ... and of course you're smart enough to know this interview isn't going to cost $10,000 or even $1,000. You won't have to pay anywhere close to that, and in fact, you'll pay a lot less. Tags: plr, mrr
