Details: Allen KarlTHE GOOD GUY IN THE BLACK HAT. Much has been written about this man and his music, with many phrases used to describe him, most of which fit him to a T. However, a couple of things have been left out of these descriptions and phrases like his million dollar smile and those eyes that say to his audience this song is for youand that audience knows he means it. It takes a true professional to accomplish this each and every time he takes to the stage. So, lets add to that phrase the good guy in the black hat: sincere, approachable, and a true country gentleman. Now, you have the perfect description of Allen Karl. Allen is a multi-talented man who has worked hard for several years, building his career to the peak he is at today. This hard work has paid off with recognition not only from his fans but from his peers as well. Allen has made many appearances in Nashville at places such as The Stockyard, The Grand Ole Oprey Gospel Hour, Moxies, The Nashville Palace, The Oprey Land Hotel, Staircase Lounge, and Fan Fair. His television appearances have included Seidzin Country Video, Wolf TV Spotlight, and the Tennessee hayride. Allens personal appearances have taken him to Canada, throughout the U.S., Europe, and the Far East Japan, Korea, the Philippines and Thailand. Allen Karl, singer/songwriter and life member of the Nashville Songwriters Association International, is currently sighed with Century II Records in Nashville, TN.
