Alycia Cooper: Live From Reno is a hilarious look at America from the eyes of Alycia. She's Chris Rock meets Ellen DeGeneres meets Yo' Momma. 19 MP3 Songs SPOKEN WORD: Comedy, HIP HOP/RAP: Hip Hop Details: Stand-Up Comedienne, Alycia Cooper, has been acting since the age of seven. She started out at Howard University's Children's Repertory Theater and continued to act throughout college. In 1991 she played the principal role of "Evilene" in the hit musical, "The Wiz." For eight years, she produced television in Washington, D.C. She was the creative force behind such shows as "Video Soul," "In Your Ear," "Rap City" and "Soundstage" (the restaurant and club). She spent two years producing a radio show for 96.3 WHUR-FM called, "The Audrey Chapman Show." Alycia was the Public Relations Assistant for "In the Public Eye, Productions" with such clients as Iyanla VanZant, Les Brown, Derek McGinty, (co-anchor of "Real Sports" with Bryant Gumbel"), and a host of others. Since moving to Los Angeles, she has worked on "The Dr. Phil Show, Wanda Does It, Bands Reunited, The Magic Hour," "The Love Connection," "Men are From Mars, Women are from Venus," "Oh Drama," "The Grown-Ups" and "The Parkers." She wrote the "Top 10's" for the #1 radio show in Los Angeles, "The Steve Harvey Morning Show," and has written for the likes of Russell Simmons, of Def Jam fame. As for sitcoms, she has written specs of "Veronica's Closet," "Jesse," "The Jamie Foxx Show," "Everybody Loves Raymond," "Will and Grace" and "Bernie Mac Show." She has penned a feature length screenplay. Alycia was chosen by Sara Finney-Johnson and Bill Boulware of "The Parkers / Moesha" fame to sit in the writer's room every day and learn the craft firsthand at "The Parkers" as a WGA Trainee. She was selected out of dozens of applicants. Upon completion of her trainee position, Alycia wrote and produced new "main titles" for "The Parkers" that air at the top of the show every Monday night at 8pm on UPN, and became the first female "audience warm-up" person for the show. She has also warmed up audiences for Girlfriends, Wanda at Large, and The Tyra Banks Show. In May of 2004, Alycia was featured in Essence Magazine as one to watch! She has also been a featured comic on "BET's Comicview," NBC's Last Comic Standing, "BET Live" and "Oh Drama." She recently placed 2nd runner up in the Californias Funniest Female Contest, and is currently touring the country performing comedy, while developing a reality show for Buena Vista/ Disney. Alycia is multi-talented and an asset to any team with which she works. Her background has created relationships with people in the record industry, television, film, radio, comedy circuits, public relations and casting. Her tenacity and work ethic inspires and brings out the best in those around her.
