Charlie Jaffe was a founding member of the Seventies rock bands CTS and the Sacred Eels, and toured with the three guitar maniac Apache Fog for several years in the 1980s. Since those heady, halcyonic rock n roll days, a few dozen guitars and a beautiful family (complete with requisite dog) later, Charlies been writing, teaching, entertaining and singing with kids in schools, community centers, camps and houses of worship in the NY metro area since the early 1990s. One of the highlights of Charlies recent years of working with kids vocal groups was having the opportunity to perform before First Lady Hillary Clinton. A little while back, early in this new century, Charlie held the guitar residency in the wildly popular, House of Peace Heartbeat Band for 2+ years. Family Album
