SPOKEN WORD: Poetry, SPOKEN WORD: With Music Details: Kenny Fountain, poetically known as "The Messenger" is from Miami, Florida. I have been writing since High School. I've spent time in the Army, worked at a State Correctional Facility, traveled around the world, and am now married with kids. Throughout my travels, I have seen many things, and have many stories to tell. My style of poetry is straight to the point, no fancy metaphors or anything like that because I beleive the easiest way to get a person's attention is to hit them as hard as you can, so that's how I bring my poetry to you.....straight to the point. It doesn't matter who you are or your social status, if you are not right, I'm not afraid to speak on it. I'm the eyes for those that can't see it and the voice for those afraid to speak.....I deliver messages.
