An Egdy Pop Hybrid of Rock,Hip-Hop,R&B,Jazz and Spoken Word. 8 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, ROCK: Funk Rock Details: DO YOU NIADO? What will be your answer? Are you willing to accept the evolution of artistic expression knocking at your door? These are the questions singer/songwriter Odain Watson is asking in his debut cd DO YOU NIADO. Odain masterfully blends his influences of rock, hip-hop, rap, pop, spoken word and jazz to fuse together a hybrid sound. Odain is no stranger to artistic expression. The 21 year old has been singing and acting since the age of 9. This project comes at a time in his life where self expression was most important. He goes to explain "I think the arts should be a representation of society. I want people to experience my reality and go on a journey with me," states Odain, who teamed with Kennies Brown of Kennies Productions for the production of Niado. Do You Niado is the title track and name of the CD. Odain believes that Niado is the inner self. Its knowing ones path and being able to accept what ever life throws at you. The album not only talks about spirituality and knowledge of self, but also dives into social issues, like in his songs LaLa Land, Family Affair, and Silent but Deadly, which talk about the trials and tribulations of young adults. "I wanted to touch people who had questions and confusion that needed to be answered, and show how to get to the root of what it is they are looking for." So...DO YOU NIADO?
